List any leadership experience you have had:

Give a brief testimony as to your Christian experience:

How do you determine what is appropriate for your life-style as a Christian? How is this reflected in your choices (amusements, habits and other activities)?

Why do you want to be a CILT?

Cedarbrook Camp Staff and CILTs are asked to manifest the following traits of character:

- a. Knows Christ as personal Savior
- b. Exhibits a vital Christian testimony
- c. Life reflects good moral character
- d. Demonstrates leadership ability
- e. Assumes responsibility
- f. Works well as a group member
- g. Shows a willingness to learn
- h. Is industrious
- i. Is dependable
- j. Is adaptable

I have read the above list of characteristics and would like to affirm my desire to be that kind of person and staff member. I realize that this is not asking for perfection but is assuming a process. With God's help I want to become all He would have me to be.
